María Camila Díaz Toledo

Junior Back-End Developer

ABOUT ME

My experience with complex academic projects has strengthened my ability to create practical solutions that make people's lives easier. Programming has developed my skills in logical analysis, problem-solving, and teamwork. My goal is to continue growing both technically and professionally, and to contribute to impactful projects within collaborative teams.

CONTACT

in https://www.linkedin.com/in/maria-camila-diaz-toledo

https://github.com/CamilaDiaz Toledo

SOFT SKILLS

- Leadership
- Creativity
- Effective communication
- Problem solving
- Teamwork
- Critical thinking

LANGUAGES

- English- Intermediate

EXPERIENCE

Ecommerce Landing-page Project
Personal Project

The Sentidos landing page is an elegant and functional platform designed to showcase high-quality intimate products, offering users an intuitive and engaging browsing experience.

View Project

Costume Store Database SQL
Campuslands – 2024

This comprehensive platform organizes and streamlines key information related to products, customers, employees, suppliers, and transactions. Its advanced structure ensures efficient and accurate management, tailored to the dynamic needs of the business, enhancing efficiency and control across all administrative processes.

View Project

Parking JavaScript
Campuslands – 2024

An application designed to manage and oversee information related to the entry, stay, and departure of vehicles at a hotel.

View Project

EDUCATION

Software Development Technician
Campuslands
April- In progress

Professional in Industrial Design
University of Research and Development
2021

HARD SKILLS

- Java
- MySQL
- JavaScript
- Python
- HTML
- CSS
- Springboot